Secretary of State,
Washington, D. C.

A-2133. December 21, 1946.

Supplementing Embassy's airgrams A-2056 of December 11 and A-2090 of December 12, 1946, joint session of Cuban Congress called for December 19 to vote on proposed Constitutional amendment extending Cuba's territory to its insular shelves was not held because the required number of Senators and Congressmen failed to attend. As Congress adjourned on December 21, no further action can be taken in this matter until Congress again convenes next March.
